Amendment to Bylaws

Amendment to Article V - Officers - Section 5.2 - Election, Term of Office and Qualifications:

If there are no candidates to fill a vacant officer position, the Board may extend the term of the officer whose term is ending for one year. If the individual is not willing to continue that role, the Board may waive the one-year step down rule to allow a former board member to fill the position for a one- year term.

Approved by the Board of Directors of the Friends of the Webster Public Library
On January 20, 2020.
